This agreement is binding and no other correspondence may be entered into.

Should I not pay the agreed amount as stipulated above, it is understood that legal proceedings will be taken and that I will be responsible/accountable for all fees, (including the commission) pertaining to the recovery of outstanding monies. If the school fee account is two (2) months in arrears, the child/ren will be suspended from attending school until such time the account is up to date or a written agreement/plan is in place to rectify such account.

This agreement has been made between both parties.

Should I require my child/ren to leave Excelsior at any stage, it is hereby understood that I must give one terms notice (three full calendar months). It is also understood that I may not lay any claim to any deposits, enrolments fees or holding fees, whatsoever. Should any of the payments made to Excelsior, by me, not be authorized by my bank, I acknowledge that I will be liable for all bank fees, interest fees, legal costs and collection fees incurred by Excelsior, in retrieving the fees.

Each agreement is strictly private and confidential and may not be discussed with anyone, whatsoever. Excelsior Learning Centre reserves the right to adjust fees annually and will notify the payee timeously.
